The DCS is looking for persons from various communities, and with various interests and appropriate qualifications to enrol for the FET Certificate in Correctional Services Learnership.

How to Apply

Applicants must submit completed and signed application forms should be accompanied by certified copies of qualifications, a certified copy of the bar-coded South African Identity Document and a Curriculum Vitae.

The FET Certificate in Correctional Services Learnership is based on a legally binding agreement between the employer, learner and service provider.

Working in pro-active partnerships with communities, learners can be assisted in acquiring the essential knowledge and skills through on-the-job training, workplace learning and workplace training.

Applicants are expected to complete at least a Grade 12/Standard 10 Certificate in order to be considered.

• Have strong character • Are law-abiding • Are of good moral standing • Have no convictions • Are of good repute • Have no disciplinary records • Are of suitable age • Are nationals of South Africa • Are physically fit and of suitable health • Are willing to be attached to Correctional Services

Applicants are required to have a Grade 12 certificate with no悬挙 marks, or at least 65% in the subjects of English or Afrikaans, Mathematics, Accounting and Accounts, and any other relevant subjects.

The FET Certificate in Correctional Services Learnership complies with Sections 17 and 18 of the Skills Development Act, 97 of 1998.

• Attend classes • Attend workshops • Complete assignments and assessments • Complete the workplace learning phase • Complete the Portfolio of Evidence (POE) and successful external verification by SASSETA.

The learner will be regarded as competent after the successful completion of the instructional learning phase, the workplace learning phase and the successful external verification by SASSETA.

No pension fund, housing allowance, housing subsidy, danger allowance, medical aid or overtime will be paid by the employer during the workplace learning phase. During this phase, learners will continue receiving a stipend. The learners will be responsible for their own accommodation, meals and transport.

This is a ± 70% workplace learning phase that will take place at the Correctional and Social Reintegration Centre/Units.

The FET Certificate in Correctional Services Learnership is offered at the following regions:
